

SIXTO R. ORTIZ, SR. Chief Consultant

Summary of Qualifications

Sixto R. Ortiz, Sr. has throughout 30 years gained a wealth of developed deep technical and laboratory safety expertise in HF Alkylation technology. From his days at Phillips Petroleum R&D facilities, Sixto brings this array of knowledge and skills to our team that can only be had through a distinguished career inside this highly specialized industry.

Career Experience

2019 to present

HF Alkylation Consultants – Chief Consultant

Supporting HF Alky units with the following key services:

- Laboratory Methods and Procedures
- Overall Safety Procedures related to laboratory operations
- Unit site-specific training

2004 to 2008

Coffeyville Refinery (KS) – Analytical Chemist

Key highlights include:

- Worked at the Gas Chromatography area of the laboratory
- Performed the analyses of the HF Alkylation acid including the purity and moisture tests.

2001-2004

Valero (Sunray, TX) – Consultant

Key highlights include:

- Supported laboratory personnel at the Gas Chromatography area
- Supervised the Gas Chromatography personnel

- Organized the methods and procedures in the GC area

1967-2001

Phillips Puerto Rico Core Petrochemical Plant – Laboratory Manager

Key highlights include:

- Directed all operations of the laboratory
- Issued all aspects related to the blending of gasoline
- Handled the quality assurance and specifications of all products being sold to different buyers.
- Made recommendations for new equipment and implemented new methods and procedures for the general improvement of the laboratory

Catholic University in Ponce, Puerto Rico

BS / Chemistry (1963)

Tulsa University, Oklahoma

MBA (Dec 1983)